

MONTESSORI METHOD

Celebrated Italian Educator May Come to Stevens Point Next Winter.

The probability of securing Madame Montessori of Rome, Italy, for a course of lectures and instructions to extend through a period of four or five months was the glad tidings conveyed by Pres. Sims of the Normal school to a delegation of local business and professional people at the public library club rooms last Monday evening. Some twenty or more attended Monday's gathering and at the conclusion of Mrs. Sims' explanatory remarks all present realized that the coming of Mrs. Montessori to Stevens Point would be the biggest boon from an educational and advertising standpoint that has fallen to our lot in many years.

The Italian lady is now at San Francisco, where she has been giving demonstrations of her new system of education for little children since last spring. The contract there will be completed in December and through the efforts of her chief assistant, Miss Helen Parkhurst, for several years a member of the local Normal faculty, Mme. Montessori may be prevailed upon to come to this city.

The material proposition calls for an outlay of approximately $10,000, of which $6,000 or $7,000 would be paid to the madame and her corps of assistants and the balance expended for advertising and incidental expenses. It is believed that one hundred students can be secured for the course, each of whom would be required to pay a tuition fee of $100.

More or less extended talks were made at the initial gathering by Prof. Hyer, Miss Hay, the new Montessori instructor at the Normal; Miss Dillon of Chicago, who recently took the course at San Francisco; W. B. Angelo, Prof. Delzell, Geo. B. Nelson, J. L. Normington, E. B. Robertson, M. E. Bruce, C. W. Copps, Prof. Neale and Supt. Snyder.

A committee of three was authorized to be appointed by Pres. Sims to draw up a form of guarantee and secure a sufficient number of signers. They will report at another meeting to be held next week.

BANQUET AT CHURCH.

Forty-five people, including eighteen Boy Scouts, in whose honor the event was given, attended a banquet at St. Paul's M. E. church last Friday evening. Talks were given by C. E. Van Hecke, Prof. J. E. Delzell and Rev. F. L. Hayward, and the Scouts entertained with drills and other Scout evolutions.

MARRIED AT SUPERIOR.

Friends of Miss Etta Hughes of this city will be interested in the fact that she was married at Superior recently to Edmund Reese, a young man whose home is at Menasha, but who has been employed as head clerk in the Priest pharmacy at the head-of-the-lakes city. The marriage was solemnized at the parsonage of the cathedral there.

EXTENDED WESTERN TRIP.

Mrs. O. O. Little returned Saturday morning from a two months' visit to the west. She was accompanied on the trip by her daughter and the latter's husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bickler of Milwaukee. The outgoing trip was made over the Canadian Pacific, through the Canadian Rockies where stops were made at notable points of interest and before going down into Mexico, the great exhibitions at San Francisco and San Diego were visited. Los Angeles and Fresno were other points in California where stops were made. Mrs. Little has sisters living at Fresno and San Francisco. The return trip was made over the Santa Fe route. When at Portland the visitors were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. E. Edwards, where they had the pleasure of meeting a number of former Stevens Pointers now living in that city.

PROF. NEALE SPEAKS

New Director of Normal Department
Gives Able Address Before Woman's Club.

Prof. O. W. Neale, new director of the rural school department of the Stevens Point Normal school, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Woman's club, held in the library last Saturday afternoon.

Prof. Neale had for his topic, "The Relation of Parent to Teacher" and his address was one that forcibly impressed his hearers. He brought out many fine points of interest to parent and teacher, emphasizing particularly the thought that the teacher, to accomplish her best work, must be familiar with the home life of the individual pupil.

The musical feature of the program was a piano solo by Mrs. James Blake, who also responded to an encore.

A communication from J. L. Gillin, secretary-treasurer of the Wisconsin Conference of Charities and Corrections, in which an invitation was extended the club members to attend the annual meeting of this organization at Wausau October 18 to 20, was read. Mrs. C. H. Shortell, Mrs. J. J. Heffron and Mrs. E. A. Hudson were elected delegates from the club.

SHARON WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. Nathalia Borclaw, aged thirty-nine years, died at the family home in the town of Sharon Sunday, following an illness of two weeks. She is survived by her husband and ten children. The funeral was held from the Catholic church in Torun this morning.

GROSS LAW VIOLATION.

Portage county has no open season for deer, nor is there any territory in Wisconsin in which big game may be lawfully hunted at this time of the year; notwithstanding this, the carcass of a deer that had been shot by a hunter within the borders of the county was confiscated by Game Warden L. G. Bergholte of this city.

Bernard Kamrowski, Steve Mosey, Niels Reton and C. W. Swan were fishing at "Hanson's Eddy," up the Wisconsin river, Sunday afternoon, when they heard a number of shots fired and shortly afterward saw a buck deer, in the last throes of death, swim out toward the middle of the stream. They rowed out and brought the then dead animal to shore and later turned it over to the game warden, who happened to come down the river with a launch party. The carcass, which weighed 180 pounds, dressed, was forwarded to the state authorities at Madison.

No arrests have been made as yet.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Felix Ceplina to Mary Zwara, both of Stevens Point. Elmer E. Worden to Edith Cater, both of Buena Vista. Joseph Przybyski of Stevens Point to Martha Wisniewski of Hull. Anton Grubba to Marie White, both of Stevens Point.

DROPS DEAD IN YARD

Joseph Konkell, Retired Farmer. Expires Suddenly at Daughter's Home on Monday.

Joseph Konkell, a former well known farmer of the town of Hull, dropped dead in the yard at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Martenka, 712 Wisconsin street, with whom he resided, at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mr. Konkell's death was entirely unexpected. Although he suffered two strokes of paralysis during the past five years, he seemed to be unusually well even a few minutes before he expired.

The deceased was in the seventy-fourth year of his age and was born in Germany. He came to this country about forty years ago, but later returned to his native land for a five years' stay. For twenty-five years preceding eight years ago, when he came to this city, he operated a farm in the town of Hull.

Relatives surviving are his widow and six children, Mrs. Frank Martenka, city; Joseph Konkell, Linwood township; Harry Konkell and Mrs. Peter Martenka, Grand Rapids, and John and Anton Konkell, St. Paul.

The funeral will be held from St. Peter's church at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning and all members of the family are here to attend.

CASES ADJOURNED.

A. F. Grubba was arraigned in county court Monday on the charge of furnishing liquor to two minor girls and, on his plea of not guilty, his case was adjourned to October 27. The case against Leo Kluck of Sharon, charged with the same offense, will also come up on October 27th in county court, another adjournment having been taken.

C. W. BEST ARTISTS PLEASE.

The first entertainment of the C. W. Best Artist series was given in the assembly hall at the Normal Monday evening. The members of the company, Miss Mignon Meeker, soprano, Miss Lois Brown, pianist, and Antonia Sala, cellist, presented a high class entertainment and were received by a fair sized audience. Members of the several musical departments of the Normal school are to be congratulated in securing artists of so excellent a standing as the company proved to be. The next number of the musical course will be given on the 29th of October, and not Nov. 3, as previously announced. This course is for town people as well as students and it is hoped that the remaining two numbers of this series will be liberally attended.

URBAHNS WRITTEN UP A MOSINEE WEDDING

Superintendent of Soo Line's Northern District Started in As Telegraph Operator.

The Fort Wayne, (Ind.) Press-Gazette has been running a series of biographical sketches under the heading, "Railroad men who have started here and have 'made good.'" Last Sunday, October 3, there appeared in this department a life-story of particular local interest, for beneath a two column picture of C. E. Urbahns of this city, superintendent of the northern district of the Soo line, was printed the following delineation of the rise of Mr. Urbahns from the time he was a youngster of fourteen to the present:

"Self-made" tells in a moment what sort of a man C. E. Urbahns, one of the division superintendents of the Soo line, is. And this is true in every sense of the word. Hard knocks of experience gave him the training which fitted him for his present position, and a goodly number of Fort Wayne railroad men are familiar with his rise from the ranks.

Some thirty years ago, a little, yellow-haired boy of fourteen, pushed on by ambition to do something in the railroad world, "picked up" telegraphy around the Nickel Plate station at Valparaiso. Still below his fifteenth birthday, he came to Fort Wayne, applied to the division operator, and was given a position as telegraph operator at South Whitley. Although he still was at the age when most boys are thinking of playing baseball or football on the freshman team in high school, young Emil Urbahns had a different idea.

He went to work at South Whitley. His determination won promotions for him to larger offices, and finally, though still around twenty, he became a dispatcher on the Nickel Plate in this city. His steady work won for him the position of night chief dispatcher.

After several years' service as night chief dispatcher here, his work attracted the attention of the Soo line officers, and he was tendered and accepted the place of day chief dispatcher at Fond du Lac, Wis. This was sixteen years ago. After a short time in this capacity, Mr. Urbahns was made trainmaster of the southern division with headquarters at the same place. He later became assistant superintendent of the same division, or superintendent of terminals at Chicago, but was advanced soon to his present position, head of the northern division. He has two brothers here, A. E. Urbahns, Nickel Plate conductor, and D. Fred Urbahns, of the Hamilton National bank in this city.

CONTINUATION TEACHERS.

Supt. and Mrs. C. C. Hayward, Prof. and Mrs. M. D. Wooten, Miss Amy Riley, Miss Bessie Oldfield and Miss Kate Foley attended the gathering of continuation schools teachers of the Wisconsin river valley at Wausau last Saturday. About forty teachers were in attendance and the gathering was so much of a success that it has been decided to hold a similar meeting about once in every three months. The next meeting will be held at Grand Rapids on December 4.

Continuation school teachers from Stevens Point, Wausau, Marshfield and Grand Rapids were in attendance, while Antigo, Merrill, Rhinelander and Spooner, which have not yet established schools of this kind, sent representatives. Warren E. Hicks, who is in charge of industrial education in the state, presided at the sessions. Supt. Hayward of this city gave an address on "Civics That is Essential for Industrial Pupils."

A feature of the meeting was a dinner served by students of the domestic science department of the Wausau continuation school. The girls had entire charge of the preparation and serving of the meal.

A BIG NEW ADDITION

Automatic Cradle Co. Adding 30,000
Feet of Floor Space to Their Plant on N. Third Street.

A three story addition, 60x88 feet in dimensions and giving floor space of 30,000 feet, is being erected by the Automatic Cradle Co. at the rear or east end of their plant on N. Third street. It will be used for the manufacture of self-rocking cradles and the making of automobile tire protectors, in both of which lines Mr. Bukolt and his associates have established a big business. The daily capacity of cradles is now 140, but when the new plant is finished in another month, it will be increased to 200 per day. Practically all of the output is shipped to jobbers in Milwaukee, Chicago, Detroit, La Crosse, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Duluth, Minneapolis, Cleveland, Boston and St. Louis.

One hundred men will be employed at the Bukolt plant when the new part is completed, an increase of about fifteen over the present force. They have also ordered a 100-horsepower Corliss engine to be operated in conjunction with the 60-horsepower oil engine now in use.

Plans are also being prepared for a 100-foot addition on the north side of the plant next spring, most of which new part will be devoted to the making of tire protectors.

Harry Marchel of Eau Pleine and Miss Catherine Redmond of Mosinee Are Married Today.

At St. Paul's Catholic church, Mosinee, this morning occurred the marriage of Harry Marchel of Eau Pleine and Miss Catherine Redmond of Mosinee. Rev. J. J. Robieski officiated. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white taffeta. She wore a wreath and veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her bridesmaids were her sister, Miss Dolly Redmond, and the groom's sister, Miss Grace Marchel, who were prettily attired in pea green taffeta and carried white prayer books. The groomsmen were James Redmond and Michael Cepress.

Immediately following the marriage ceremony the wedding party and several invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a most sumptuous four course wedding dinner was served. The bridal party will board this evening's St. Paul train for a trip and will be at home after Nov. 1st at the home of the groom in Eau Pleine.

She has followed the vocation of school teacher for some time and is the possessor of a pleasing personality. She will make a helpmate in every sense of the word for the one who has chosen her as his wife.

The groom is a son of John Marchel, who is one of Eau Pleine's oldest and most respected residents. He is a young man of sterling qualities and wide acquaintance. He is serving his town a second term as treasurer and is also assistant rural mail carrier. He organizes the basket ball teams and in fact is the live wire all through the locality where he resides. "WITHIN THE LAW."

A melodrama of timely interest, as it deals with the ins and outs of the metropolitan police departments, was produced in New York and Chicago, and its author, Bayard Veiller, has many reasons to congratulate himself, for his play has many stirring scenes and nearly all the qualities of a big melodramatic success.

In Chicago last season, this play ran for over a hundred nights and the chief hit of the performance was scored by Miss Margaret Illington, who achieved a really brilliant success in the role of Mary Turner, a salesgirl in a department store, who is sent to jail for stealing goods, a crime of which she was innocent. On her release she determines to wreck vengeance on the department store proprietor who sent her to jail. She obtains money under false pretenses in various ways, but makes it the purpose of her life to always keep her crooked dealings within the law. "Within the Law" will be seen at the Empire theatre next Wednesday evening, Oct. 13th.

HELD LENGTHY SESSION

Common Council Takes Up Important Matters at Monthly Meeting Tuesday Evening.

The longest session the common council has had in several months and one that was characterized by more than the ordinary amount of wrangling, was held Monday evening, when many matters of an important nature were brought up.

A petition for an electric light at the corner of Portage and First streets was referred to the lighting committee with power to act.

Considerable discussion followed the reading of a petition that Rice street be repaired, and the matter was finally referred to the board of public works.

A request from the Automatic Cradle Co. asking for sewer connections for its plant on N. Third street, in which the company offered to advance the cost of the work, if necessary, was presented. It was unanimously voted to comply with the request, if possible.

An ordinance providing for the issuance of $10,000 in bonds of the city of Stevens Point for the purpose of retiring the First ward school bonds, which become due November 15 of this year, was introduced and passed. The bonds are to be one hundred in number, will be payable in from two to eleven years from November 15, 1915, and will bear interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent, payable semi-annually.

Frank Bemowski's application for a license to conduct a saloon at 210 Public Square was granted, Ald. Hyer, Martin, McDonald and Van Hecke voting against, as was also a similar application from Kubisiak & Bannach, who propose to open a saloon at 120 South Second street. Aldermen Hyer, Martin and Van Hecke voted against the license of Kubisiak & Bannach. Both applications invoked a considerable amount of controversial language.

The comptroller's report showed $180.50 had been granted to paupers during September.

The quarterly report of Municipal Judge Murat stated he had collected $88 in fines during the period, while that of Chief of Police Hofsoos for the quarter showed that $105.98 had been turned over to the city treasurer, $88 of which was for dog licenses.

Comptroller G. L. Rogers' report of the disbursements of city moneys during the fiscal year ending December 31, 1914, and his estimate of the amounts necessary for the various funds for the year 1916 were read. The expenditures for 1914 were $65,784.02, while the estimate for 1916 is $63,000, less $13,000 estimated receipts. The matter was referred to finance committee.

The budget for the city schools for 1916, the net total of which is $44,243.94, was, on motion of Ald. McDonald, referred to the finance committee, they to make a thorough investigation and report at the next meeting.

County Judge Murat, as provided by law, reported that Anton Suchowski, a saloonkeeper of the city, had appeared before him on September 27 and pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to a minor. A recess was taken for the purpose of looking up the provisions of the city ordinance governing such cases, and on reconvening the report was placed on file. The ordinance provides that a private citizen must make complaint under oath before a saloon license can be revoked.

Dr. C. von Neupert, Sr., city health officer, reported that there had been twenty-six cases of smallpox in the city during the last three months and that he had attended to the fumigation of twenty-four dwellings and the Sixth ward school house, a total of 103 rooms.

A notice from a number of property owners in the vicinity of Main and Division streets, stating that unless some action is taken to provide adequate drainage at that point, legal proceedings would be instituted to recover present and past damages, was presented through Pfiffner & Gallagher, attorneys for the petitioners. The board of public works was instructed to investigate as to what can be done and report at the next meeting.

The proposition to appropriate $350 for improving the fair grounds race track when a like sum or one larger, is raised by the fair association by popular subscription, was received with a considerable difference of opinion, but a motion to make the appropriation was finally passed. Aldermen Firkus, Leahy and Van Hecke voted against.

Ald. C. E. Van Hecke, chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the water question, gave an interesting report, during which he read a letter from W. E. Miller, an engineer with the state railroad commission, stating that there is but little doubt of the practicability of developing an ample and satisfactory water supply near the Plover river, where two experimental wells have been sunk. In order to make up for the expenditure in the water investigation above the amount appropriated, the committee was voted $95 additional.

After a short executive session, an adjournment was taken. Alderman Sparks was absent at roll call, and Ald. King was excused before the close of the meeting.

NOTICE.

All water bills are now due and payable on or before Oct. 20.

STARTS FOR NORWAY

Peter Anderson, Inmate of Poor House, Furnished Transportation to Native Land.

Ever since Peter Anderson, aged seventy-one and an "old salt," was committed to the Portage county poor house at Amherst Junction about a year ago, he has longed to return to Norway, his native land, from which he had wandered as a boy of seventeen.

For forty-five years he was a seafarer on merchant vessels and he circled the globe four times. He was in several shipwrecks and in the last one, about nine years ago, lost his right arm. His sailing days over, due to his physical disability, he became a homeless wanderer and continued to be until he was taken in by Portage county.

Anderson yearned to get back to his old home town in Norway, where he has a sister living. The county authorities took up the matter a few weeks ago and as a result he was furnished with transportation to the "Land of the Midnight Sun." He was brought to the city Monday and cared for by County Clerk A. E. Bourn until midnight, when he boarded a Soo line train for Chicago. From Chicago he goes to New York and he will sail from there on Thursday on the Scandinavian-American liner United States. At Trondhjem, a port on the west coast of Norway, he will disembark and continue sixty-five miles to Bodoeu, the little town where he expects to pass the remainder of his days amidst boyhood scenes.

The entire cost of Anderson's ticket, which was paid by the county, was $68.50, including a three dollar revenue tax.

Democrats throughout the north half of this state, and especially all who are personally acquainted with the gentleman, will enthusiastically endorse the candidacy of Frank P. O'Connor of Wausau for the position of United States marshal for the western district of Wisconsin. The gentleman's loyalty as a party man is unquestioned, but he also possesses the added advantage of being familiar with many of the duties required of a marshal, he having served two terms as sheriff of Marathon county, the second time being elected by the largest majority ever given a candidate for county office.

QUARTER CENTURY AGO

Items of Local Interest Reprinted From The Gazette in 1890.

Twenty-five years ago today Geo. W. Cone and Miss Isabelle Page were married in the city of Rochester, N. Y. Now they are residents of Stevens Point and have been during the past four years. "Dad" Cone is one of the oldest engineers on the Wisconsin Central road. A reception will be tendered to their friends at their home this evening.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Six week examinations are being held this week.

Work on the fair and supper is going forward. The date is still undecided.

The Misses Monica Tice and Lorraine Noll of Marshfield visited school Tuesday.

The members of the Senior English class are busy writing their autobiography.

Clark Hippensteel, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, has returned to school.

Misses Hazel Scott and Florabelle Rogers were among those who went to Marshfield last Saturday to witness the football game.

A supply of new desks has arrived and will be set up in the assembly room to accommodate those who have been without seats since the beginning of school.

Supt. H. C. Snyder attended the conference of city superintendents called by State Superintendent Cary at Madison, Oct. 1st and 2nd. Mr. Snyder while there met several former Stevens Point people, among whom were Supt. J. E. Roberts of Fond du Lac, A. L. Godfrey, last year's principal, who is now studying law at the university, and Herman Pagel, Lorentz and John Martini, graduates from last year's class, who are enrolled at the university.

About thirty-five students accompanied the football team to Marshfield Saturday where Stevens Point outplayed the Marshfield High in all respects and won by a score of 25 to 0. The game was played during a steady rain, which caused the ball and the grounds to be very slippery, but nevertheless Coach Tippet's men put up a strong fight and showed that the Stevens Point eleven was the better team. A large crowd met the visitors at the depot in Marshfield and the school band lead the way to the high school, where the game was played. In the evening a reception was given the Stevens Pointers in the gym. All report that they enjoyed the trip very much. Next Saturday the team will journey to Merrill, where a hard game will be played.

Merrill recently defeated Marshfield by a score of 69 to 0. With the addition of Mosey, who was a strong player on last year's team, and Dobeck, who had been out on account of an injury, our team will be much stronger and able to give Merrill all they are looking for.

WALKING FROM CHICAGO.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Berry of Chicago started on a two hundred and fifty mile hike to Stevens Point this morning, according to a story that appeared in the Chicago Tribune today.

Mrs. Bery is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. McGlathlin of this city and her husband is well known in the educational world as a publisher of text books. The Tribune's article follows: "Shall we run over east and spend a couple of weeks in the Adirondacks, my dear?" queried B. D. Berry over the breakfast eggs and toast yesterday morning. Mrs. Berry laid down an egg spoon, looked at her husband, and shook her head. "No, dear," she answered firmly, and added, "nor shall we go to California, Flanders nor the ball parks, either. We'll go on a hike to Stevens Point, Wisconsin." Mr. Berry raised no objections. The Berrys, suitably accoutered, began the 250 mile walk from their residence at 5449 Magnolia avenue, this morning at six o'clock.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

MISS HERREN MARRIED.

An elaborate wedding and one that was of more than ordinary interest took place at Fond du Lac at high noon last Wednesday, when Miss Julia Herren was married to Frank Alonzo Watkins of Chicago. The ceremony was performed in the St. Augustine chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal cathedral, the Venerable Archdeacon B. T. Rogers officiating. The bride was a girlhood resident of Stevens Point, being a daughter of Major and Mrs. E. R. Herren, and a host of friends in this city join in expressions of good wishes and congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins will be at home after November 15, in Chicago, where the former is treasurer of the Mather Stock Car Co.

Rheumatism and Allied Pains—They Must Go!

The congestion of the blood in its flow causes pain. Sloan's Liniment penetrates to the congestion and starts the blood to flow freely. The body's warmth is renewed; the pain is gone. The "man or woman who has rheumatism, neuralgia or other pain and fails to keep Sloan's Liniment in their home is like a drowning man refusing a rope." Why suffer? Get a bottle of Sloan's. 25c and 50c. $1.00 bottle holds six times as much as 25c size.

TWO BLACK BEARS.

William Williams, a farmer residing in Marathon county, just over the border, came to the city last Friday with the carcass of a 150 pound black bear, which he sold to the J. Jerzak market on North Second street. The animal was caught in a trap Mr. Williams had set.

That there is an occasional bear even in this county was demonstrated by Ed. McHugh of the town of Eau Claire, who brought one of the big shaggy animals to town Monday and disposed of it to the Peickert market. This bear was shot while it was roaming about near the McHugh home. It tipped the beam at 140 pounds.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Slack, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Slack of McDill, and Clinton G. Clusman, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clusman of Meehan, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 10:30 o'clock last Thursday morning. Rev. J. T. Bryan of this city officiated. The best wishes of many friends in this community will follow them to Madison, where they will reside, the groom being employed as a machinist there. They left for the capitol city Friday.

Wild mallards are being raised with success on the University farm. These birds are easy to domesticate and thrive well under the unusual conditions. Five mallard ducklings hatched on October 12, 1913, weighed three pounds apiece at Thanksgiving Day without the aid of artificial feeding.

Chronic Constipation.

"About two years ago when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine," writes Mrs. John Newton, Irving, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

NEW PLAY PLEASING.

Stevens Point theatre-goers who had been anxiously awaiting the opportunity to see an up-to-date musical comedy, had their hopes fulfilled last Wednesday evening, when the new "Million Dollar Doll" was presented at the Empire. The company was a most capable one and the production in its entirety was highly meritorious. A large audience was in attendance.

A TOURISTS' PARADISE

Cortina, Where Warring Soldiers Are Marching, is Starting Point for Mountain Excursionists.

"Cortina di Ampezzo, which is now in the midst of the war-ridden marches between the Austrians and Italians, in peace times, was the favored starting point of mountain excursionists and of Dolomite tourists," according to a statement issued by the National Geographic Society upon the geography of war zone places in the public eye. While in itself an unimportant little village, Cortina has borrowed from the popularity of the magnificent Dolomite region surrounding it, and its picturesque cluster of houses upon the great mountain thoroughfare that winds through it, is well known to many Americans who have spent vacations scrambling thru the lesser mountains of the eastern Alps.

"The village shelters 1,000 inhabitants, fenced among the mountains, 4,000 feet above the level of the sea. In summer, it has regularly been crowded with many visitors, coming from all parts of the western hemisphere, and so, though isolated from the world about it, it has considerable cosmopolitanism in its make-up. In the immediate neighborhood of Cortina, some of the finest paths in the Dolomites can be pursued. On the northeast of the town rises the Cristallo group; to the east is the Tre Croci saddle and Crepedel; and to the north is Col Rosa, Lavinore, Seekofel, and Croda dell' Ancona. Pieve di Cadore, one of the two small neighboring villages which claim the honor of being Titian's natal place, lies about 19 miles from Cortina. Here are preserved a number of the master's works, and the village is full of memories of its greatest son, who regularly came from Venice to spend his summers there throughout a long life.

"Cortina is a knot in the wonderful Dolomite road. It is situated in the Italian-speaking part of Austrian-Tyrol, not far from the Italian border. Besides being a host to many visitors, Cortina has made somewhat of a name for itself in an art which was brought to it from India by a visiting Englishman, the art of inlaying with silver. The village has a school for the teaching of this work, and its productions are noted far from their source for their quality of design and perfection of finish.

About one-third of the nation's food bill goes for meat, and the meat and dairy products combined amount to more than one-half the total expenditure.

CLEAN-UP DAY AT HAND.

Vulgar shows are to have no place at the Wisconsin State fair of 1916, according to an announcement made by Secretary C. P. Norgord. The glittering "pike," with its ballyhoo artists, its "Men Only" signs and general air of obscenity is to be a thing of the past.

Public sentiment has changed. This has been demonstrated to the complete satisfaction of the state fair management by annual deficits that have stifled the growth of the exposition. But the lesson, though costly, has been well learned and, in the end, will prove a positive benefit.

The idea that exhibits of the "September Morn" order are necessary to attract a certain class of patrons, is a poor excuse for their existence. To deserve and to receive the support of the great mass of people, a fair must be clean in every department, must be elevating in its general tone and must be educational.

What the state fair has learned is a cue for the district fair and the county fair. The tendency of the age is toward cleanliness in its amusement and entertainment as much as it is toward purity and wholesomeness in the things we eat.

A wagon load of clover seed may bring as much as $250 in cash. Co-operative trials of clover seed production are being pushed in the northern counties of the state. The Branch Station at Ashland has a clover huller which it loans to growers who are raising clover for seed production purposes. More than fifty farmers used the machine during the first year.
